The Senate convened at 5:30 p.m. after meeting with members of President's Council, Black Students of Central representatives, and Associated Students of Central representatives, to discuss cancellation of classes on Wednesday, May 20, to protest the killings at Jackson State and also to discuss Black students' needs at Central.

MOTION NO. 682: Mr. Hawkins moved, seconded by Mr. Thomas, that the Faculty Senate recommend cancellation of classes on Wednesday, May 20, to protest the killing of students at Jackson State College. Students and faculty are urged to use this day to discuss race relations on campus.
